UNITED STATES' MOTION
TO ALTER OR AMEND THE JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO
FED.R.CIV.P. 59(e)

The United States of America, by its counsel, moves to alter or amend the judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e). For the reasons set forth in the United States' Memorandum in Support of Motion to Alter or Amend the Judgment, as well as the pleadings and papers already on file in this action, the Second Amended Petition to Quash Summonses should be dismissed as moot and the Order, entered April 1, 2004, quashing the summonses in

UNITED STATES' MEMORANDUM
IN SUPPORT OF MOTION
TO ALTER OR AMEND
THE JUDGMENT

The United States of America, by its counsel, moves to alter or amend the judgment pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e).

BACKGROUND

On October 30, 2003, the petitioner filed a Petition to Quash Summons [sic] (hereinafter the Petition") with the United States District Court for the District of Nevada seeking to quash the summonses issued to Fidelity, GreenPoint and Chase. For various reasons, the petitioner sought an order quashing the summonses and prohibiting the Service from examining any information obtained from the summonses. Thereafter, on November 17, 2003, before the United States served a responsive pleading, the petitioner filed the First Amended Petition to

1 Quash Summonses (hereinafter the "Amended Petition"). Subsequently, on December 1, 2003,
2 the petitioner filed a Motion to Obtain Leave of Court to File Second Amended Petition to Quash
3 Summonses (hereinafter the "Second Petition"). The Second Petition, which repeats the 4 assertions of the Amended Petition, attaches a Bivens complaint and incorporates the allegations
5 of the Bivens complaint therein.

6 On December 18, 2003, the United States moved to dismiss the Amended Petition and 7 noted that the petitioner's motion to file a second amended petition should be denied because
8 such amendment would be futile. By Order, dated January 27, 2004, the Court, however, granted
9 the petitioner's motion to file the Second Petition. Accordingly, on February 5, 2004, the United 10 States then moved to dismiss the Second Petition.

11 Oral argument was held on the motion to dismiss on February 23, 2004. The Court
12 quashed the summonses and directed the petitioner to prepare an order for the Court's signature.
13 The Internal Revenue Service thereafter withdrew the summonses. Although Fidelity National 14 Title Agency of Nevada and, later, Greenpoint Mortgage Funding, Inc. complied with the 15 summonses issued to them, the documents produced in response to those summonses, which 16 were sealed upon receipt of the Petition pending the resolution of the instant proceeding, were 17 destroyed or returned to them. To date, Chase Manhattan Mortgage Corp. has not complied with 18 the summons issued to it. By letter, dated March 25, 2004, the Internal Revenue Service notified
19 Chase Manhattan Mortgage Corp. that such summons has been withdrawn. Inasmuch as the 20 summonses challenged by the petitioner are no longer outstanding, on April 1, 2004, the United 21 States moved to dismissed the Second Petition as moot. On the same date, the Court entered an 22 Order quashing the summonses. The United States now moves the Court, pursuant to Federal 23 Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e), to alter or amend the Order, entered April 1, 2004.

24 DISCUSSION

25 A motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) may be based, among other things, 26 on a need to correct clear legal error. See, e.g., School Dist. No. 1J, Multnomah County, Or. v.
27 AcandS, Inc., 5 F.3d 1255, 1263 (9th Cir. 1993); Carlson v. United States, 76 A.F.T.R.2d ¶ 95-

1 5592, at 95-7270 (D. Hawaii 1995). This error may be a mistake of law or fact. 12 JAMES W.
2 MOORE, MOORE'S FEDERAL PRACTICE § 59.30[5][a][iv], at 59-105 9 (3d ed. 1998)(footnote
3 omitted). Here, as discussed in the United States' Memorandum in Support of Motion to 4 Dismiss Second Amended Petition to Quash Summonses as Moot, no case or controversy exists
5 with respect to the above-captioned matter because the summonses at issue have been 6 withdrawn. Accordingly, the Second Petition must be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction, and the 7 Order, entered on April 1, 2004 should be vacated.

8 CONCLUSION

9 For the reasons set forth above, the Second Petition should be dismissed, and the Order,
10 entered on April 1, 2004 should be vacated.

11 DATED this 14th day of April, 2004.
